An Autumn Day at Guisborough. Beyond the ruins of the Augustinian Priory are the Cleveland Hills, with Roseberry Topping appearing as a great menacing fang—a warning to all who would approach the inhospitable wastes beyond. The east end of the choir is practically all that remains of the priory church, which was built in Early Decorated times.

Mr Fred. Thanks so much for card just received.

Sorry I haven't written letter yet but will try to do so tonight.

Have something to tell you. It is very windy & cold today
With love Hilda
